Society

Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, plans to leave the city for Los Angeles, where the general executive committee of the society is soon to hold its annual meeting.

Mrs. Thomas Watt Gregory, Mrs. Lee S. Overman, Mrs. E. Marvin Underwood, Mrs. Robert Dowdy, Mrs. Maud Howell Smith, Mrs. P. L. Herndon, Mrs. E. Thornton, Mrs. G. S. Covington and Mrs. George B. Ashby have been chosen as matrons of honor for the reception to be given by Washington Camp, Sons of Confederate Veterans, in honor of its sponsor, Miss Jane Gregory, and maid of honor, Miss Grace Overman, Tuesday evening, October 19, at the Cairo.

Dr. Ethan Flagg Butler of this city was among the ushers at the marriage of Miss Margaret Armour and Dr. Thomas N. Harvey, Jr. of Orange, which took place last night in the Glen Ridge Congregational Church at Glen Ridge, N. J.

A reception followed at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. Weston Bailey.

Miss Desha Allen, whose marriage to Lieut. Joseph Viner, U. S. A., will take place at Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., November 18, is with her aunt, Mrs. T. C. Dix, at Stoneleigh Court.

Dr. H. B. Coblentz, who was operated upon Sunday for appendicitis, is improving.

Mrs. George H. Wright will entertain the members of the college alumnae Friday afternoon at her home at Linden station on the Forest Glen electric car line.

Mrs. S. A. Kimberly is entertaining at a luncheon, followed by tea, this afternoon in compliment to Miss Helena Smith, whose marriage to Mr. Roger Berry will take place October 28. Mrs. Kimberly will be assisted by the Misses Bessie and Anne Brown, of Larchmont, N. Y., who are her nieces. They are nieces of Mr. Kimberly.

The marriage of Miss Isabel Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Collins, and Mr. Edward T. Naughten took place yesterday afternoon at noon at St. Paul's Catholic Church.

The sanctuary was banked with palms and ferns and the altar vases were filled with white chrysanthemums. Mr. Macklin performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a traveling suit of dark blue gabardine, with a black velvet hat trimmed with a bird of paradise, and carried a bouquet of bride roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Gertrude Collins, who was her sister's only attendant, wore a dark blue tulle gown, with a black velvet hat, and carried pink roses.

Mr. Francis Naughten acted as best man for his brother, and the ushers were Mr. Kelsey Collins and Mr. James Naughten. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for their wedding trip, which will be spent in Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Naughten will be at home after November 1 at the Wilbur, 18th and Irving streets northwest.

The marriage of Miss Irene K. McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. McDonald, and Mr. Frank E. Sullivan, both of this city, took place yesterday morning in the Church of the Holy Comforter, Rev. Clarence E. Wheeler officiating. The ceremony was very quiet, only the immediate members of both families being present.

Mr. and Mrs. Sullivan left later for an extended trip in the north. They will be at home after November 1, at 1011 Massachusetts avenue.

Mrs. Elliot H. Goodwin of this city was in New York yesterday to attend the marriage of her brother, Mr. Francis Hunt Geer, and Miss Helen Hartley Jenkins.

Mrs. Jenkins, the bride's mother, received the guests at the reception following. She wore a light purple satin veiled with black chiffon, topped by a purple hat with plumes. Mrs. Goodwin was in black velvet and chiffon, touched with turquoise blue, and a black hat trimmed with fur.

Mr. Geer and his bride, on their return from their bridal trip, will live at 15 East 10th street, New York.

Wrenn-Holden Wedding.

Special Correspondence of The Star.

HERNDON, Va., October 12.—The marriage of Miss Winnie V. Holden of Manassas and Mr. Raymond N. Wrenn of Herndon, Va., took place Monday afternoon in the Methodist Episcopal Church, Fairfax, Rev. GOLDEN WEDDING DAY OF DR. AND MRS. MCKEE

Anniversary Celebrated Last Night at Home, When Score of Friends Congratulated Couple.

Dr. and Mrs. James McKee, 1344 Vermont avenue northwest, observed their golden wedding anniversary last night with a reception at their home. The house was beautifully decorated, Dr. McKee receiving in the drawing room, where, between 8 and 10 o'clock, they were congratulated by scores of their friends.

Dr. McKee, who has been connected with the medical division of the pension bureau since 1902, was born in Independence, Pa., December 28, 1840, being one of a family of fourteen brothers and one sister. Five of the brothers served in the Union army during the civil war, Dr. McKee enlisting at Logansport, Ind., in the 118th Indiana volunteers.

At the close of the war he took up school teaching and the study of medicine, attending Chicago Medical College, and later Indiana Medical College in Indianapolis, graduating from the latter. He practiced medicine for ten years in northern Indiana, moving to Kansas in 1878, where he continued the practice of medicine until his appointment to the medical division of the pension bureau.

His wife, to whom he was married in Cass county, Indiana, October 12, 1865, was Miss Mary Grable. She attended the county schools of Cass county, and later the old academy at Logansport and the normal school at Kokomo, Ind., and began teaching school when she was eighteen years old. Mrs. McKee has taken a deep interest in club work coming to Washington, being a member of the Abundantia Club and the Columbia Heights Art Club. She is also a member of Livingston Manor Chapter, D. A. B.

Four children were born to Dr. and Mrs. McKee, three of whom are living. These are Mrs. J. P. Ramsey, Emporia, Kan.; Mrs. Fred D. Heister, Washington, D. C.; and Robert G. McKee, Kansas City, Mo. There are three grandchildren, Misses Katherine and Margaret Ramsey of Emporia and Isabel Perry Heister of this city.

Dr. McKee is past commander of Columbia Commandery, No. 2, K. T. of this city. He is also a member of the Abundantia and the Capitol Hill Literary Club.
